AWARENESS PROGRAMME FOR MINORITY STUDENTS FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR (2025 - 26)

Name of the Program	Awareness Program for Minority Students
Date	18/09/2025
Time	11:00 AM to 1:00 PM
Venue	Conference Hall, 'O' Building, Sandip University
Chairperson of Committee	Dr. Nissar A. Reshi
Speaker of the Session	Dr. Moinuddin Siddiqui

Objectives:

- To discuss the expansion of minority representation in university committees and student councils.
- To encourage minority students to participate in leadership roles within the university.

Detailed Description of the Awareness Program:

On 18/09/2025, an awareness program was conducted, which was aimed to highlight the importance of minority representation. The event kick started with the inaugural address by Chairperson Dr. Nissar A. Reshi followed by keynote speech by Dr. Moinuddin Siddiqui, an expert academician in the field of Forensic Science.

Dr. Nissar A. Reshi highlighted the significance of representation diversity in decision making at the university. Dr. Reshi laid emphasis on having representation of minority students in various committees is not meant to meet the only legal requirements but also a stepping stone towards building inclusive and equitable environment. It was stressed that having students in the role of representation from minority communities helps to voice their concern to address their roadblocks.

Following Dr. Nissar's address, Dr. Moinuddin Siddiqui, the speaker for the session, delivered an inspiring talk on the value of student leadership and representation. Dr. Siddiqui highlighted the long history of underrepresentation of minority communities. Sir underscored the need to have minority representation in higher education institutions and its impact on the decision making.

It was highlighted that greater minority representation in university bodies, such as academic committees, student governance councils, student unions etc would lead to more balanced and thoughtful decision making processes. Dr. Siddiqui argued that diversity brings different perspectives, which in turn fosters innovative solutions to institutional challenges. Furthermore, it was stressed that importance of minority students having role models in leadership positions, as this can inspire more students from marginalized backgrounds to strive for similar roles, thereby creating a virtuous cycle of empowerment and representation.

During the session, students were encouraged to actively pursue leadership roles within the university by running for positions on student councils, joining university committees, and taking part in decision-making processes. Dr. Siddiqui highlighted that leadership is not just for the extroverted or experienced, but for anyone willing to step forward and contribute to the collective betterment of the university community.

The event concluded with a Question Answer session, where students had the opportunity to ask both the expert about minority representation, and leadership. Dr. Nissar made an announcement about the upcoming initiatives that would provide leadership training and mentorship to minority students interested in governance roles.
