Subject: Mid-Semester Review of Anti-Ragging Activities and Student Safety Measures

The committee reviewed the anti-ragging initiatives undertaken during the first half of the academic year and examined the reports received from academic departments, hostel wardens, student mentors, and security personnel.

The Chairperson emphasized that ragging adversely affects the mental well-being, academic performance, and confidence of students. The committee unanimously agreed that maintaining a safe, inclusive, and student-friendly campus environment is one of the highest priorities of the University.

The committee reviewed the following measures already implemented:

- Display of Anti-Ragging Posters and UGC Anti-Ragging Helpline Numbers across the campus.
- Orientation and awareness sessions conducted for newly admitted students.
- Collection of Anti-Ragging Undertakings from students and parents.
- Regular interaction between mentors and mentees.
- Surprise visits to hostels by wardens and committee members.
- Continuous monitoring through CCTV surveillance systems.

• Availability of complaint reporting mechanisms through departments and university authorities.

After detailed discussion, the committee resolved that:

1. Awareness drives shall be conducted every semester in all schools and departments.
2. Hostel wardens shall submit monthly vigilance reports to the committee.
3. Counseling support shall be provided to students facing stress, anxiety, or adjustment issues.
4. Student representatives shall actively support anti-ragging awareness activities.
5. Any complaint received shall be investigated immediately and dealt with as per UGC Regulations and University Rules.

The committee noted with satisfaction that no incidents of ragging were reported during the semester.

The resolution was passed unanimously.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks by the Chairperson.

Subject No. 1: Preparatory Measures for Prevention of Ragging and Student Safety During New Academic Session

Resolution No. 1:

The Chairperson welcomed all members and emphasized the importance of maintaining a ragging-free campus environment, particularly during the admission and induction period of newly admitted students. The committee discussed various preventive measures required to ensure the safety, dignity, and well-being of all students.

The committee reviewed the provisions of the UGC Anti-Ragging Regulations and the Maharashtra Prohibition of Ragging Act and reiterated the University's commitment towards a Zero Tolerance Policy against ragging.

The committee reviewed and approved the following preventive measures for Academic Year 2025-26:

• Anti-Ragging Awareness Sessions shall be conducted during the Student Induction Programme for all newly admitted students.

• Anti-Ragging Undertakings from students and parents shall be collected and maintained by respective schools and departments.

• Posters displaying Anti-Ragging Regulations, Punishments, and UGC Anti-Ragging Helpline Numbers shall be displayed at prominent locations across the campus.

• Hostel Wardens, Faculty Mentors, and Security Personnel shall maintain special vigilance during the first three months of the academic session.

• Surprise inspections shall be conducted in hostels, cafeterias, transportation facilities, and common gathering areas.

• CCTV surveillance systems installed across the campus shall be regularly monitored.

• Students shall be encouraged to report any incident through confidential reporting mechanisms without fear of retaliation.

• Counseling support shall be provided to newly admitted students to help them adjust to the university environment.

The committee also discussed the importance of creating a friendly and supportive atmosphere between senior and junior students through mentoring and guidance activities. Members emphasized that awareness and counseling are equally important as disciplinary action in preventing ragging incidents.

After detailed deliberations, the committee unanimously resolved to implement all preventive measures before the commencement of regular academic activities and to continuously monitor their effectiveness throughout the semester.

The committee expressed confidence that these initiatives would help maintain a safe, secure, and student-friendly campus environment.

The resolution was passed unanimously.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks to all members by the Chairperson.

Subject No.1: Discussion on measures for preventing ragging in the university.

Resolution No.1: The committee discussed the importance of taking proactive steps to prevent ragging within the university. It was resolved that an anti-ragging awareness campaign will be conducted at the start of each academic year, targeting both new and senior students. Mandatory workshops on the Maharashtra Prohibition of Ragging Act of 1999 will be organized to ensure that all students are aware of the consequences of indulging in ragging. Any student found guilty of engaging in ragging will face strict disciplinary measures, including possible expulsion.
The resolution passed unanimously.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks to all Anti-Ragging Committee members by the Chairman.
